Bottleneck BV
Draaiboomstraat 97
2660 Hoboken-Antwerpen
België

Borovitza Vox Dei Pinot Noir 2018

One of the more extraordinary wines from the cellars of Borovitsa. Vox Dei ("The Voice of God") is probably their most legendary and bizarre project. The story behind the name? In the middle of the Pinot Noir vineyard lies a crater where a meteorite once struck. Ognyan picked up a piece of that meteorite and allowed it to age along with the oak barrel in which this wine rests. Whether that provides cosmic energy is up to you to decide, but the result in the glass speaks for itself.

9.50 €

Winery	Borovitza
Country - Region	Bulgaria, Danube Valley
Winestyle	Red: spicy & fruity
Grape Variety	Pinot Noir
Viticulture	Biologic/Organic
Winemaking	Natural
Maturation	24 months in used oak
Drinking window	2024-2029
Gastronomy	Just like that, lighter meat dishes, BBQ, pastas
Volume (cl.)	75.0
Alcohol percentage	13.0