Kirrenbourg Sylvaner Roche Granitique 2025

The new pearl of Alsace: domaine Kirrenbourg. The ambitious team led by winemaker Samuel Tottoli has been working hard in recent years to make wines that can compete with the absolute top of Alsace, and often even surpass them. The vineyards are rigorously biodynamic. In terms of winemaking, spontaneous fermentations and slow maturations are chosen that let the grape and the terroir speak for themselves.

This Sylvaner Roche Granitique is made from, you guessed it, grapes from granite soils. Hand-picking, slow spontaneous fermentation and a year of maturing in ceramics make for a particularly rich, fruit-driven interpretation of sylvaner. The depth of this wine in combination with the fine freshness makes for a particularly refined drinking experience.
